SCHOOL STUDENTS WILL BE ORGANIZED IN PLAN TO BOOST NEW STADIUM

When Junior Organization Is Complete Then Older Folks Will Enroll.

ALL FOR BETTER CITY

Connellsville Boosters Association Is To Be Community Project to Back Everything for Better City; Alumni Association to Be Made Active.

At a meeting of the executive committee of the Connellsville Boosters Association, held on December 10, plans were advanced for bringing the stadium and park proposition in East Park to the attention of the public and organizing Connellsville behind the movement to put it across in community fashion.

It is felt that everyone in the city is keenly interested in the project because of its possibilities Although it will afford a fine stadium for the school athletics it will not stop at that but will also provide a public park and playground for the community.

Because the schools of the city are its greatest institution and they will derive much benefit from the place, not only in football but in the summer, it is the belief of the committee that the whole public is concerned and would be willing to participate actively in the effort to get the proposition "over."

One of the first plans suggested is the organization of the Junior Boosters' Association and then the Connellsville Boosters' Association proper, which will stand for everything of any value to Connellsville.

Plans for this organization include the enrollment of the young folks first. Every boy and girl would be desired in this The fee would be five cents and each would receive a certificate of membership Then the parents, older brothers and sisters, and neighbors, who have no children in the schools, would be invited to enroll. The assessment on them would be 10 cents. They would also receive a certificate of membership

Once this has been accomplished and the whole community is banded together in common effort it is believed nothing will stop the project

Another matter discussed by the committee was he lack of life in Connellsville Alumni Association. It would like to see some of the younger element in this group reorganize and put the association on an operating basis. Such activity on the part of the alumni, it is believed would reflect in the success of football teams, and that would reflect on the community

The stadium and park plan, although at first conceived and advanced by a few, is no longer a committee proposition It is now to be a community effort and every Connellsvillian is as much of a committee to see that it is erected as any other person.

A finance committee of responsible citizens will be named in the near future. There will be no solicitations to secure funds for the park and stadium. It is believed that enough groups of men and women and organizations will lend their efforts by giving entertainments of some nature or other for the benefit of the stadium that enough funds will be secured Although subscriptions will not be asked, none will be refused

In every sense, it is pointed out, the stadium and park is the biggest community project ever attempted in Connellsville It it can be put over with emphasis it is believed enough civic pride and spirit will have been aroused in doing it to work to further good for the city

Mrs. May Hogg has signified her willingness to donate any amount of ground necessary, in addition to the tract laid out by the late James B Hogg for a park, to the city When the deeds to his ground have been delivered to City Council then the stadium work will begin in earnest
